

English Dictionary

LETTERS START WITH F

<https://chitrabazar.com/english-grammar/>

Fabric: Noun. Material made by weaving, knitting, or felting fibers together, often used for clothing or furnishings.

Face: Noun/Verb. (Noun) The front part of the head, with features like eyes, nose, and mouth; (Verb) To confront or deal with a situation.

Factory: Noun. A place where goods are manufactured or produced on a large scale.

Facsimile: Noun. An exact copy or reproduction, often used in the context of documents or artwork.

Fade: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To gradually lose color, brightness, or clarity; (Noun) A gradual disappearance of color or brightness.

Faint: Adjective/Verb. (Adjective) Lacking in strength or clarity; barely perceptible; (Verb) To lose consciousness briefly.

Fair: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Just and equitable; free from bias or favoritism; (Noun) An event or gathering for entertainment, often with rides and games.

Faith: Noun. Belief or trust in something or someone, often of a religious or spiritual nature.

Fall: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To descend from a higher to a lower place; (Noun) The season between summer and winter.

False: Adjective. Not true or accurate; deceptive or misleading.

Family: Noun. A group of individuals related by blood, marriage, or adoption, living together as a social unit.

Fan: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A device used to create a current of air or to cool an area; an enthusiastic supporter of someone or something; (Verb) To cool or ventilate with a fan.

Fare: Noun. The price paid for transportation, such as a ticket for a journey.

Farm: Noun/Verb. (Noun) An area of land used for cultivating crops or raising animals; (Verb) To cultivate or manage a farm.

Fast: Adjective/Adverb/Verb. (Adjective) Quick or rapid in speed; (Adverb) Quickly or without delay; (Verb) To abstain from food for a period, often for religious or health reasons.

Fascinate: Verb. To attract and hold the attention or interest of someone in a compelling way.

Fashion: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A popular style or trend in clothing, accessories, or behavior; (Verb) To create or shape something in a particular way.

Father: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A male parent; (Verb) To beget or sire offspring.

Fault: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A defect or imperfection in something; a mistake or error; (Verb) To find blame or responsibility in someone or something.

Favor: Noun/Verb. (Noun) An act of kindness or goodwill; an advantage or preference given to someone; (Verb) To do something as a gesture of goodwill.

Feature: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A distinctive attribute or aspect of something; (Verb) To prominently include or highlight something.

Federal: Adjective. Relating to a system of government in which power is divided between a central authority and individual states or provinces.

Fee: Noun. A payment or charge for services or access, often in a professional or business context.

Feed: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To provide food to someone or something; (Noun) Food for animals or livestock.

Feel: Verb. To perceive or experience a tactile sensation; to have an emotional or intuitive response.

Fellow: Noun/Adjective. (Noun) A man or a person; often used to refer to someone in a similar situation or with similar interests; (Adjective) Sharing a common characteristic or status.

Female: Noun/Adjective. (Noun) A person or animal of the sex that is typically characterized as having reproductive organs and functions associated with females; (Adjective) Relating to the female sex or gender.

Fertile: Adjective. Capable of producing offspring or crops; productive and able to support growth.

Festival: Noun. A celebration or occasion of public or religious significance, often marked by feasting, ceremonies, and cultural events.

Fetch: Verb. To go and bring back something, often at the request of someone.

Fiction: Noun. Literary works created from the imagination rather than being based on real events; storytelling.

Fiddle: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A musical instrument of the violin family; (Verb) To play the fiddle or to tamper or manipulate something.

Field: Noun/Verb. (Noun) An area of open land, often used for cultivation or sports; (Verb) To engage in a specific activity, often related to a field of study or expertise.

Fight: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To engage in a physical or verbal struggle or conflict; (Noun) A physical or verbal confrontation.

Figure: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A numerical symbol representing a number; a person's bodily shape or silhouette; (Verb) To calculate or understand something.

Film: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A thin layer or coating; a motion picture or movie; (Verb) To capture on film or make a movie.

Final: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Coming at the end; last in a series or process; (Noun) The last examination or event in a series.

Fire: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A state of combustion, often accompanied by heat and light; (Verb) To ignite or set something on fire.

Firm: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Resolute and unwavering; (Noun) A business organization or company.

Fish: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A cold-blooded vertebrate animal that lives in water and typically has fins for swimming and gills for breathing; (Verb) To catch or try to catch fish.

Fit: Adjective/Verb. (Adjective) In good physical condition; suitable or appropriate; (Verb) To be of the right size or shape for something.

Fix: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To repair or mend something; to fasten or attach securely; (Noun) A solution or remedy.

Flame: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A visible, gaseous, and often hot body of burning gas; (Verb) To burn with a flame.

Flash: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A sudden burst of light or a brief moment of brightness; (Verb) To emit a sudden burst of light or to appear briefly.

Flat: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Having a level surface; lacking in emotion or enthusiasm; (Noun) An apartment on one level of a building.

Flavor: Noun/Verb. (Noun) The distinctive taste or quality of something, often related to food or drink; (Verb) To give a particular taste to something.

Fleet: Noun/Adjective. (Noun) A group of vehicles, ships, or aircraft operated by a single organization; (Adjective) Fast and nimble.

Flesh: Noun. The soft substance consisting of muscle and fat that is found on the bodies of humans and animals.

Flex: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To bend or stretch something, often a muscle or limb; (Noun) A flexible or bent part.

Flight: Noun. The action or process of flying; a journey made by an aircraft.

Float: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To rest on the surface of a liquid without sinking; to move gently on water; (Noun) An object that is buoyant on water.

Flock: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A group of birds, sheep, or other animals that are gathered together; (Verb) To come together in a group or move as a group.

Flood: Noun/Verb. (Noun) An overflowing of water onto normally dry land; (Verb) To inundate or overwhelm with water.

Flourish: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To grow or develop in a healthy or vigorous way; to thrive; (Noun) A bold or extravagant gesture or action.

Flow: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To move steadily and continuously in a particular direction; (Noun) The steady and continuous movement of a liquid, gas, or people.

Flu: Noun. Short for influenza, a contagious viral infection that causes fever, muscle aches, and respiratory symptoms.

Flute: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A musical instrument typically made of metal or wood, played by blowing across a hole; (Verb) To play a flute.

Flutter: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To wave or flap rapidly and irregularly; (Noun) A quick and irregular movement.

Fly: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To move through the air with wings, like a bird or insect; (Noun) A flying insect.

Fog: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A thick cloud of tiny water droplets suspended in the air; (Verb) To cover or obscure something with fog.

Fellowship: Noun. The companionship, friendship, or community of individuals with shared interests or goals.

Fertilize: Verb. To enrich or cultivate the soil with substances that promote plant growth; to make something more productive or fertile.

Fervent: Adjective. Displaying intense passion, enthusiasm, or warmth of feeling.

Festival: Noun. A celebration or occasion of public or religious significance, often marked by feasting, ceremonies, and cultural events.

Fetch: Verb. To go and bring back something, often at the request of someone.

Fiction: Noun. Literary works created from the imagination rather than being based on real events; storytelling.

Fiddle: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A musical instrument of the violin family; (Verb) To play the fiddle or to tamper or manipulate something.

Field: Noun/Verb. (Noun) An area of open land, often used for cultivation or sports; (Verb) To engage in a specific activity, often related to a field of study or expertise.

Fight: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To engage in a physical or verbal struggle or conflict; (Noun) A physical or verbal confrontation.

Figure: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A numerical symbol representing a number; a person's bodily shape or silhouette; (Verb) To calculate or understand something.

Film: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A thin layer or coating; a motion picture or movie; (Verb) To capture on film or make a movie.

Final: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Coming at the end; last in a series or process; (Noun) The last examination or event in a series.

Fire: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A state of combustion, often accompanied by heat and light; (Verb) To ignite or set something on fire.

Firm: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Resolute and unwavering; (Noun) A business organization or company.

Fish: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A cold-blooded vertebrate animal that lives in water and typically has fins for swimming and gills for breathing; (Verb) To catch or try to catch fish.

Fit: Adjective/Verb. (Adjective) In good physical condition; suitable or appropriate; (Verb) To be of the right size or shape for something.

Fix: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To repair or mend something; to fasten or attach securely; (Noun) A solution or remedy.

Flame: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A visible, gaseous, and often hot body of burning gas; (Verb) To burn with a flame.

Flash: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A sudden burst of light or a brief moment of brightness; (Verb) To emit a sudden burst of light or to appear briefly.

Flat: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Having a level surface; lacking in emotion or enthusiasm; (Noun) An apartment on one level of a building.

Flavor: Noun/Verb. (Noun) The distinctive taste or quality of something, often related to food or drink; (Verb) To give a particular taste to something.

Fleet: Noun/Adjective. (Noun) A group of vehicles, ships, or aircraft operated by a single organization; (Adjective) Fast and nimble.

Flesh: Noun. The soft substance consisting of muscle and fat that is found on the bodies of humans and animals.

Flex: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To bend or stretch something, often a muscle or limb; (Noun) A flexible or bent part.

Flight: Noun. The action or process of flying; a journey made by an aircraft.

Float: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To rest on the surface of a liquid without sinking; to move gently on water; (Noun) An object that is buoyant on water.

Flock: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A group of birds, sheep, or other animals that are gathered together; (Verb) To come together in a group or move as a group.

Flood: Noun/Verb. (Noun) An overflowing of water onto normally dry land; (Verb) To inundate or overwhelm with water.

Flourish: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To grow or develop in a healthy or vigorous way; to thrive; (Noun) A bold or extravagant gesture or action.

Flow: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To move steadily and continuously in a particular direction; (Noun) The steady and continuous movement of a liquid, gas, or people.

Flu: Noun. Short for influenza, a contagious viral infection that causes fever, muscle aches, and respiratory symptoms.

Flute: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A musical instrument typically made of metal or wood, played by blowing across a hole; (Verb) To play a flute.

Flutter: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To wave or flap rapidly and irregularly; (Noun) A quick and irregular movement.

Fly: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To move through the air with wings, like a bird or insect; (Noun) A flying insect.

Fog: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A thick cloud of tiny water droplets suspended in the air; (Verb) To cover or obscure something with fog.

Follow: Verb. To go or come after someone or something; to obey or adhere to a particular course of action or belief.

Food: Noun. Any substance that is consumed to provide nutritional support to the body; nourishment.

Foot: Noun. The lower extremity of the leg below the ankle, on which a person stands or walks.

Forbid: Verb. To prohibit or prevent someone from doing something; to order not to do something.

Force: Noun/Verb. (Noun) Physical or mechanical energy used to move or change the state of an object; (Verb) To make someone do something against their will.

Forecast: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A prediction or estimate of future events or trends; (Verb) To predict or estimate future events or trends.

Foreign: Adjective. Belonging to, situated in, or coming from another country or region; not native or domestic.

Forest: Noun. A large area covered chiefly with trees and undergrowth; a natural woodland.

Forge: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To create or shape a metal object by heating it and hammering it into shape; (Noun) A blacksmith's workshop.

Forget: Verb. To fail to remember something; to unintentionally not recall a piece of information.

Forgive: Verb. To stop feeling angry or resentful toward someone for an offense, flaw, or mistake; to pardon.

Form: Noun/Verb. (Noun) The shape, structure, or appearance of something; a document with spaces for information to be inserted; (Verb) To give shape or structure to something.

Fort: Noun. A fortified building or military stronghold designed to protect against attack.

Forward: Adverb/Adjective/Verb. (Adverb) In a direction ahead or to the front; (Adjective) Directed or moving ahead; (Verb) To send or transmit something onward.

Foundation: Noun. The base or support on which something stands or is built; an organization established to fund or support charitable, educational, or research activities.

Fountain: Noun. A natural or artificial source of water that flows upward or is ejected into the air; a decorative water feature.

Fragile: Adjective. Easily broken, damaged, or destroyed; delicate and vulnerable.

Frame: Noun/Verb. (Noun) The structure that supports or encloses something; (Verb) To construct or compose something.

Frank: Adjective/Verb. (Adjective) Open, honest, and straightforward in speech or expression; (Verb) To send mail or packages without payment of postage.

Free: Adjective/Verb. (Adjective) Not under the control or in the power of another; not subject to external restraint; (Verb) To release or set someone or something free.

Freedom: Noun. The state of being free from imprisonment, slavery, or restraint; the power or right to act, speak, or think as one wants without hindrance.

Frequent: Adjective/Verb. (Adjective) Occurring or happening often; common or habitual; (Verb) To visit or use a place or service regularly.

Friend: Noun. A person whom one knows, likes, and trusts; a person with whom one has a bond of mutual affection.

Frighten: Verb. To cause fear or alarm in someone; to make someone afraid or scared.

Fruit: Noun. The matured ovary of a flowering plant, usually containing seeds; edible and often sweet parts of a plant.

Fuel: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A material that is burned to produce energy or heat; (Verb) To supply with fuel or power.

Full: Adjective. Containing or holding as much or as many as possible; complete or whole.

Fun: Noun. Enjoyment, amusement, or lighthearted pleasure derived from an activity or experience.

Fund: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A sum of money saved or made available for a particular purpose; (Verb) To provide financial support for something.

Funny: Adjective. Causing laughter or amusement; humorous or comical.

Furniture: Noun. Large movable equipment or objects, such as tables and chairs, used to make a room or building suitable for living or working.

Fury: Noun. Wild or violent anger; intense, often destructive rage.

Future: Noun/Adjective. (Noun) The time or a period of time following the present moment; (Adjective) Existing or occurring at a later time.

Fuzzy: Adjective. Indistinct, unclear, or lacking in sharpness or detail, often related to visual or tactile perception.

LETTERS START WITH G

<https://chitrabazar.com/english-grammar/>

Gain: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To obtain or acquire something desirable, often through effort or action; (Noun) An increase or profit.

Gallery: Noun. A room or building where works of art, especially paintings or sculptures, are displayed.

Game: Noun/Verb. (Noun) An activity or sport with defined rules in which people or teams compete; (Verb) To play games or engage in playful activities.

Garage: Noun. A building or space used for the storage of vehicles, often a car.

Garden: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A piece of land cultivated for the cultivation of flowers, plants, or vegetables; (Verb) To work in or care for a garden.

Gas: Noun. A substance that is in a gaseous state at ordinary temperatures and is capable of flowing and taking the shape of its container; often used for fuel and heating.

Gate: Noun. A movable barrier used to close an opening in a fence, wall, or other enclosure; an entrance or exit.

Gather: Verb. To come together in a group; to collect or assemble things or people.

Gear: Noun/Verb. (Noun) Equipment or machinery used for a particular purpose; (Verb) To adjust or adapt something for a specific function.

General: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Affecting or concerning all or most people, places, or things; (Noun) A high-ranking military officer.

Generate: Verb. To produce, create, or bring into existence, often through a process or action.

Genius: Noun. Exceptional intellectual or creative ability; a person with extraordinary talent or intelligence.

Gentle: Adjective. Kind, mild, and considerate in manner or nature; not harsh or severe.

Genuine: Adjective. Real, authentic, and not fake or counterfeit; sincere and honest.

Gesture: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A movement or action of the hand, arm, or body to express an idea, emotion, or intention; (Verb) To make a gesture.

Get: Verb. To obtain or acquire something through effort or action; to become or come to have something.

Gift: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A present or something given willingly to someone without payment; (Verb) To give a gift.

Girl: Noun. A female child or young woman.

Give: Verb. To freely transfer possession or control of something to someone; to offer or present something to someone.

Glad: Adjective. Feeling pleased, happy, or delighted about something.

Glass: Noun. A hard, brittle substance that is transparent or translucent and used for making windows, containers, and optical instruments.

Glide: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To move smoothly and continuously, often with little or no effort; (Noun) A smooth and continuous movement.

Global: Adjective. Relating to or involving the whole world; worldwide in scope or influence.

Glow: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To emit a steady light or heat; to shine brightly with warmth or color; (Noun) A steady light or warmth.

Go: Verb. To move or travel from one place to another; to proceed or progress.

Goal: Noun. An objective or aim; the desired result or achievement toward which effort is directed.

God: Noun. A deity or divine being worshipped and revered in various religions.

Gold: Noun. A precious metal with a bright yellow color, often used for currency, jewelry, and ornaments.

Good: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Of high quality; morally right or virtuous; (Noun) That which is morally right or beneficial.

Goose: Noun. A large waterfowl bird, often recognized for its long neck and honking call.

Government: Noun. The governing body or authority that administers laws, regulations, and policies in a country or organization.

Grace: Noun. Elegance, beauty, or charm in movement, appearance, or manner; divine favor or blessing.

Graduate: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To complete a course of study and receive a degree or diploma; (Noun) A person who has successfully completed a course of study.

Grain: Noun. The small, hard seed or seedlike fruit of cereal plants, such as wheat, barley, and rice.

Grand: Adjective. Impressive and large in size, scope, or importance; magnificent or splendid.

Grass: Noun. A low-growing plant with narrow leaves that forms the basis of many lawns and pastures.

Great: Adjective. Of an extent, amount, or intensity considerably above average; outstanding or excellent.

Green: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Having the color of growing leaves and grass; environmentally friendly; (Noun) The color green.

Greet: Verb. To welcome or acknowledge someone with words or gestures, often upon meeting them.

Grey: Adjective. A variant spelling of "gray," referring to a color between black and white.

Grin: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To smile widely, often showing one's teeth;
(Noun) A wide and cheerful smile.

Grip: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To take and hold something firmly; (Noun)
The act of grasping something firmly.

Grocery: Noun. Food and other items sold in a grocery store; the store itself.

Ground: Noun/Verb. (Noun) The solid surface of the earth; a piece of land; (Verb) To base or establish something firmly.

Group: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A collection of individuals or things considered together; (Verb) To gather or arrange in a group.

Grow: Verb. To increase in size, develop, or become larger over time.

Guard: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A person or group responsible for protecting or watching over someone or something; (Verb) To protect or watch over.

Guess: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To form an opinion or estimate without sufficient information; (Noun) An estimate or conjecture.

Guest: Noun. A person who is invited to visit someone's home or attend an event, often as a visitor or participant.

Guide: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To lead or direct someone in a particular direction; (Noun) A person or thing that provides information or assistance.

Guilty: Adjective. Responsible for a wrongdoing or offense; deserving blame or punishment.

Guitar: Noun. A musical instrument with strings that are played by plucking or strumming, typically made of wood.

Gun: Noun. A weapon designed to discharge projectiles, often bullets, by the force of an explosion.

Gut: Noun. The stomach or intestines; the innermost part or essence of something.

LETTERS START WITH H

<https://chitrabazar.com/english-grammar/>

Habit: Noun. A routine behavior or practice that is repeated regularly, often without conscious thought.

Hair: Noun. The fine threadlike strands that grow from the skin of humans and animals, especially on the head.

Half: Noun/Adjective. (Noun) One of two equal parts of a whole; (Adjective) Denoting something that is divided into two equal parts.

Hall: Noun. A large room or building used for public gatherings, events, or meetings.

Hammer: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A tool with a heavy metal head, often used for driving nails or breaking things; (Verb) To strike or hit with a hammer.

Hand: Noun. The end part of a person's arm, including the fingers and palm; the side or direction one faces.

Handle: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A part of an object designed to be held by the hand; (Verb) To touch, hold, or manage something.

Hang: Verb. To suspend or be suspended from above; to attach something so it is supported from above.

Happen: Verb. To occur, take place, or come to pass as a result of events or circumstances.

Happy: Adjective. Feeling or showing pleasure, contentment, or joy.

Hard: Adjective/Adverb. (Adjective) Solid, firm, or resistant to pressure; difficult to do or achieve; (Adverb) With a great deal of effort or force.

Harm: Noun/Verb. (Noun) Physical or psychological injury or damage; (Verb) To cause injury or damage to someone or something.

Hat: Noun. A covering for the head, often with a brim and made of various materials, worn for protection or as a fashion accessory.

Hate: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To feel intense or passionate dislike for someone; (Noun) Intense or passionate dislike.

Have: Verb. To possess or own something; to experience or undergo a particular situation or condition.

Heal: Verb. To become healthy again; to alleviate or mend a physical or emotional wound or injury.

Health: Noun. The state of being free from illness or injury; overall well-being.

Hear: Verb. To perceive sound through the ears; to listen to or become aware of something.

Heart: Noun. The muscular organ in the chest that pumps blood throughout the circulatory system; often regarded as the center of emotions and affection.

Heat: Noun/Verb. (Noun) The quality of being hot; high temperature; (Verb) To make or become hot.

Heaven: Noun. A place or state of eternal happiness and bliss, often associated with the afterlife in religious beliefs.

Heavy: Adjective. Having a great weight or mass; difficult to lift or move; intense or serious.

Height: Noun. The measurement of how tall something or someone is; the distance from the bottom to the top.

Help: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To assist or give aid to someone in need; (Noun) Assistance or support.

Here: Adverb. In, at, or to this place or position.

Hero: Noun. A person admired for their courage, outstanding achievements, or noble qualities; a protagonist in a story or narrative.

Hide: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To conceal or put out of sight; (Noun) The skin of an animal, especially when tanned and used for leather.

High: Adjective. Elevated in position or status; having a great vertical extent.

Hill: Noun. A naturally raised area of land that is higher than the surrounding terrain; a small mountain.

History: Noun. The study of past events, particularly in human affairs; the whole series of past events connected with someone or something.

Hit: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To strike or come into contact with force; (Noun) A successful and forceful strike.

Hm: Interjection. A non-committal sound often used to express hesitation or contemplation.

Hmmm: Interjection. A variant of "Hm" used to convey deeper thought or uncertainty.

Hmong: Noun/Adjective. (Noun) A Southeast Asian ethnic group; (Adjective) Relating to the Hmong people or their culture.

Hobo: Noun. A homeless person, typically one who travels from place to place in search of work or shelter.

Hobby: Noun. An activity or interest pursued for pleasure and relaxation, often outside of one's primary occupation.

Hockey: Noun. A team sport played on ice or field, involving players using sticks to hit a puck or ball into the opponent's goal.

Hold: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To grasp, carry, or support something with one's hands; to keep or retain something; (Noun) A grasp or grip.

Holder: Noun. A device or object used for holding or supporting something.

Hole: Noun. A hollow space or opening in a surface; a pit or cavity.

Holiday: Noun. A day of celebration or leisure, often with special significance or customs.

Hollow: Adjective/Noun/Verb. (Adjective) Having an empty or concave interior; (Noun) A low, sheltered area; (Verb) To make or become empty or concave.

Hollywood: Noun. A district in Los Angeles, California, famous for its entertainment industry, including film and television production.

Holocaust: Noun. The systematic genocide of six million Jews and millions of others by Nazi Germany during World War II.

Holy: Adjective. Regarded as sacred or divine; associated with religious reverence or purity.

Home: Noun. The place where one lives, typically with family; a residence.

Homemade: Adjective. Made or prepared at home, rather than being bought or professionally produced.

Homework: Noun. Tasks or assignments given to students by teachers to be completed outside of regular class hours.

Homosexual: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Relating to sexual attraction or orientation toward the same sex; (Noun) A person who is sexually attracted to members of the same sex.

Honest: Adjective. Truthful, sincere, and free from deceit or fraud; morally upright.

Honey: Noun. A sweet, viscous substance produced by bees from nectar and used as food.

Honeycomb: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A structure of hexagonal cells made by bees to store honey and raise their larvae; (Verb) To create a honeycomb structure.

Honeymoon: Noun. A vacation or trip taken by a newly married couple shortly after their wedding.

Honor: Noun/Verb. (Noun) High respect, esteem, or recognition; (Verb) To regard with great respect or fulfill an obligation or commitment.

Hook: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A curved or bent device used to catch, hold, or suspend something; (Verb) To attach or fasten with a hook.

Hope: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A feeling of optimism or desire for a positive outcome; (Verb) To wish for or desire something with expectation.

Horizon: Noun. The line at which the earth's surface and the sky appear to meet; the limit of a person's knowledge or experience.

Horizontal: Adjective. Parallel to the plane of the horizon; flat and level.

Hormone: Noun. Regulatory chemical substances produced by glands in the body that influence various physiological functions.

Horror: Noun. An intense feeling of fear, shock, or disgust; a genre of fiction focused on frightening or disturbing themes.

Horse: Noun. A large domesticated mammal commonly used for riding, racing, and as a work animal.

Hospital: Noun. A facility where medical treatment and care are provided to sick or injured individuals.

Host: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A person or entity that entertains or provides hospitality to guests; (Verb) To entertain or provide hospitality to guests.

Hot: Adjective. Having a high temperature; producing a sensation of heat; sexually attractive.

Hotel: Noun. A commercial establishment that provides lodging and accommodations for travelers and guests.

Hour: Noun. A unit of time equal to 60 minutes, typically used for measuring time.

House: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A building used for human habitation; (Verb) To provide shelter or lodging.

Household: Noun/Adjective. (Noun) A group of people living together in a single dwelling; (Adjective) Relating to a household or domestic life.

Housewife: Noun. A married woman who manages the household and domestic duties.

Hover: Verb. To remain suspended in the air, typically by means of rapid and sustained movements.

Howl: Verb/Noun. (Verb) To emit a loud, prolonged cry, especially like that of a wolf; (Noun) A loud, mournful cry or noise.

Hypothesis: Noun. A proposed explanation or educated guess based on limited evidence, often used in scientific research.

Hypothetical: Adjective. Based on or serving as a hypothesis; assumed for the sake of argument or investigation.

Hypnotize: Verb. To induce a state of focused attention and heightened suggestibility in someone, often for therapeutic purposes.

Hypocrite: Noun. A person who pretends to have moral principles, beliefs, or virtues that they do not actually possess.

Hypocrisy: Noun. The practice of professing beliefs, feelings, or virtues that one does not hold or exhibit; insincerity.

Hypocritical: Adjective. Behaving in a way that contradicts one's stated beliefs or moral values; characterized by hypocrisy.

Hyperactive: Adjective. Excessively or abnormally active, often applied to children who display high levels of energy and restlessness.

Hyperbole: Noun. Exaggerated statements or claims not meant to be taken literally, often used for emphasis or effect.

Hypertension: Noun. High blood pressure, a medical condition characterized by elevated blood pressure in the arteries.

Hyperthermia: Noun. An abnormal increase in body temperature, often due to prolonged exposure to heat.

Hyphen: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A punctuation mark (-) used to join words or parts of words; (Verb) To connect words with a hyphen.

Hypnotic: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Inducing or relating to a state of hypnosis; producing a trance-like state; (Noun) A drug or substance used to induce sleep or relaxation.

Hyphenate: Verb. To divide or separate words with a hyphen, especially when they are compounded or joined together.

Hypoallergenic: Adjective. Designed or formulated to reduce the likelihood of causing allergic reactions in sensitive individuals.

Hypoglycemia: Noun. A medical condition characterized by abnormally low levels of glucose (sugar) in the blood, often resulting in symptoms like weakness and dizziness.

Hypotenuse: Noun. In geometry, the longest side of a right-angled triangle, opposite the right angle.

Hypothalamus: Noun. A region of the brain that plays a vital role in controlling various bodily functions, including temperature regulation and hormone production.

Hypothalamic: Adjective. Relating to or associated with the hypothalamus, particularly in the context of brain functions and regulation.

Hyperlink: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A clickable link in an electronic document or on a webpage that directs users to another location or resource; (Verb) To create or activate hyperlinks.

Hyperactive: Adjective. Excessively or abnormally active, often applied to children who display high levels of energy and restlessness.

Hypoallergenic: Adjective. Designed or formulated to reduce the likelihood of causing allergic reactions in sensitive individuals.

Hypothalamus: Noun. A region of the brain that plays a vital role in controlling various bodily functions, including temperature regulation and hormone production.

Hypothalamic: Adjective. Relating to or associated with the hypothalamus, particularly in the context of brain functions and regulation.

Hyperlink: Noun/Verb. (Noun) A clickable link in an electronic document or on a webpage that directs users to another location or resource; (Verb) To create or activate hyperlinks.

Hypermarket: Noun. A very large retail store that combines a supermarket and department store, offering a wide variety of goods and products.

Hyperthermia: Noun. An abnormal increase in body temperature, often due to prolonged exposure to heat.

Hyperactive: Adjective. Excessively or abnormally active, often applied to children who display high levels of energy and restlessness.

Hyperbole: Noun. Exaggerated statements or claims not meant to be taken literally, often used for emphasis or effect.

Hyperbolic: Adjective. Exaggerated or overemphasized to the point of absurdity; characterized by hyperbole.

Hypercritical: Adjective. Excessively critical or judgmental; inclined to find faults or flaws in everything.

Hypermarket: Noun. A very large retail store that combines a supermarket and department store, offering a wide variety of goods and products.

Hyperplasia: Noun. An abnormal increase in the number of cells in an organ or tissue, often as a response to injury or disease.

Hyperrealism: Noun. A style of art characterized by extreme attention to detail, resulting in works that closely resemble photographs.

Hypersecretion: Noun. The excessive production and release of a substance by a gland or organ, often related to hormonal imbalances.

Hypersensitivity: Noun. An exaggerated or abnormal response to a stimulus or allergen, often resulting in allergies or immune reactions.

Hyperspace: Noun. A theoretical dimension or space that exists beyond the traditional three dimensions, often explored in science fiction.

Hyperthermia: Noun. An abnormal increase in body temperature, often due to prolonged exposure to heat.

Hypertrophy: Noun/Verb. (Noun) An increase in the size of an organ or tissue, often due to increased cell size or number; (Verb) To undergo hypertrophy.

Hyperactivity: Noun. Excessive or unusually high levels of physical or mental activity, often associated with conditions like ADHD.

Hypertext: Noun. Text that contains links to other documents or webpages, allowing non-linear navigation and information retrieval.

Hyperimmune: Adjective. Having an exceptionally strong or heightened immune response to a specific antigen or pathogen.

Hypermarket: Noun. A very large retail store that combines a supermarket and department store, offering a wide variety of goods and products.

Hyperopia: Noun. A vision condition where distant objects are seen more clearly than nearby objects; farsightedness.

Hypersensitivity: Noun. An exaggerated or abnormal response to a stimulus or allergen, often resulting in allergies or immune reactions.

Hypertension: Noun. High blood pressure, a medical condition characterized by elevated blood pressure in the arteries.

Hypertensive: Adjective/Noun. (Adjective) Relating to or characterized by high blood pressure; (Noun) A person with high blood pressure.

Hyperthermia: Noun. An abnormal increase in body temperature, often due to prolonged exposure to heat.

Hyperplasia: Noun. An abnormal increase in the number of cells in an organ or tissue, often as a response to injury or disease.

Hyperrealism: Noun. A style of art characterized by extreme attention to detail, resulting in works that closely resemble photographs.

Hypersensitivity: Noun. An exaggerated or abnormal response to a stimulus or allergen, often resulting in allergies or immune reactions.

Hyperspace: Noun. A theoretical dimension or space that exists beyond the traditional three dimensions, often explored in science fiction.

Hypertrophy: Noun/Verb. (Noun) An increase in the size of an organ or tissue, often due to increased cell size or number; (Verb) To undergo hypertrophy.

Hyperactivity: Noun. Excessive or unusually high levels of physical or mental activity, often associated with conditions like ADHD.

Hypertext: Noun. Text that contains links to other documents or webpages, allowing non-linear navigation and information retrieval.

Hyperimmune: Adjective. Having an exceptionally strong or heightened immune response to a specific antigen or pathogen.

FOR MORE LETTERS GO TO
WEBSITE <https://chitrabazar.com/english-grammar/>

HTTPS://CHITRABAZAR.COM/ENGLISH-DICTIONARY/