

ONE WORDS

SUBSTITUTION

HTTPS://CHITRABAZAR.COM/

Happiness: The state of being happy, joyful, or content.

Example: "The news of her promotion brought immense happiness to her."

Harmony: The state of agreement, cooperation, or peaceful coexistence.

Example: "The choir sang in perfect harmony, creating a beautiful melody."

Hazard: A potential source of danger or risk.

Example: "It's important to be cautious when working with hazardous materials."

Habit: A regular tendency or practice, often done without conscious thought.

Example: "Her morning habit was to have a cup of coffee before starting work."

Handsome: Attractive in appearance, often used to describe men.

Example: "He was a handsome young man with striking features."

Happiness: The state of being happy, joyful, or content.

Example: "The news of her promotion brought immense happiness to her."

Harbor: A sheltered area of water where ships and boats can anchor safely.

Example: "The harbor was filled with fishing boats returning from their catch."

Haste: Excessive speed or urgency in doing something.

Example: "He made a mistake due to his haste in completing the project."

Heartfelt: Sincere and deeply felt, often used to describe emotions or sentiments.

Example: "She received a heartfelt thank-you note for her help."

Habitual: Done regularly or as a habit, part of one's routine.

Example: "His habitual morning exercise routine kept him fit."

Harmony: The state of agreement, cooperation, or peaceful coexistence.

Example: "The choir sang in perfect harmony, creating a beautiful melody."

Haunt: To visit or recur in one's thoughts or memories persistently.

Example: "The memories of her childhood haunt her to this day."

Handicap: A disadvantage or limitation that makes achievement more difficult.

Example: "Despite his physical handicap, he excelled in his chosen sport."

Harvest: The process of gathering crops or agricultural products.

Example: "Farmers work hard during the harvest season to collect their crops."

Hazardous: Involving risk or danger, potentially harmful.

Example: "Entering the hazardous area without proper protection is not advised."

Happen: To occur or take place, often by chance.

Example: "The accident happened on a rainy evening."

Hardship: A condition of suffering or privation, often due to difficult circumstances.

Example: "They faced many hardships during their journey through the wilderness."

Hearty: Warm, enthusiastic, and sincere.

Example: "They received a hearty welcome from their friends."

Halt: To stop or come to a sudden stop.

Example: "The train came to a halt at the station."

Halcyon: Calm, peaceful, and prosperous.

Example: "They enjoyed the halcyon days of summer by the beach."

High: Having a great vertical distance or elevation.

Example: "The mountain peak was so high that it touched the clouds."

History: The study of past events, particularly in human affairs.

Example: "She has a degree in history and is passionate about ancient civilizations."

Hike: To take a long walk in the countryside, often for recreation.

Example: "They decided to hike through the forest and enjoy nature."

Hilarious: Extremely funny and causing laughter.

Example: "The comedian's jokes were so hilarious that the audience couldn't stop laughing."

Hidden: Concealed or not easily seen or discovered.

Example: "The treasure was hidden in a secret cave."

Hierarchy: A system of organization in which individuals or things are ranked according to their importance or status.

Example: "In the military, there is a strict hierarchy of ranks."

Hint: A subtle or indirect suggestion or clue.

Example: "She dropped a hint about her upcoming birthday."

Historic: Having great historical significance or importance.

Example: "The signing of the Declaration of Independence was a historic event."

Hobby: An activity or interest pursued for pleasure and relaxation.

Example: "Collecting stamps is his favorite hobby."

Hire: To employ or engage the services of someone for a job or task.

Example: "The company decided to hire a new marketing manager."

Hesitate: To pause or hold back in uncertainty or indecision.

Example: "She hesitated before making the final decision."

Highlight: To emphasize or make prominent a particular part or feature.

Example: "The presentation will highlight the key findings of the research."

Hip: The region of the body between the waist and the thigh.

Example: "He injured his hip while playing sports."

Historical: Relating to or concerning history.

Example: "The historical museum displays artifacts from different time periods."

Hm: An interjection used to express hesitation, uncertainty, or contemplation.

Example: "Hm, I'm not sure if I should go to the party tonight."

Hymn: A religious song or poem typically sung in praise or worship.

Example: "The congregation sang a beautiful hymn during the church service."

Hmong: A Southeast Asian ethnic group known for their unique culture and language.

Example: "The Hmong community has a rich tradition of storytelling."

Hope: A feeling of expectation and desire for a particular thing to happen.

Example: "I hope to see you again soon."

Hotel: A place where travelers can pay for lodging and, often, meals.

Example: "They booked a room at the luxurious hotel downtown."

Hobby: An activity or interest pursued for pleasure and relaxation.

Example: "Gardening is her favorite hobby."

Honor: High respect, esteem, or recognition given to someone.

Example: "He was awarded a medal in honor of his bravery."

Horizon: The line at which the earth's surface and the sky appear to meet.

Example: "The sunsets on the beach provide a breathtaking horizon."

Home: A place where one lives, usually with one's family.

Example: "She invited her friends over to her home for a dinner party."

Hospital: A place where medical treatment and care are provided to the sick or injured.

Example: "He works as a nurse in a children's hospital."

Holiday: A day of celebration or observance, often with a break from work or school.

Example: "They are planning a holiday trip to the mountains."

Hour: A unit of time equal to 60 minutes.

Example: "The meeting will start in one hour."

Hot: Having a high temperature or producing a sensation of heat.

Example: "The coffee is too hot to drink right now."

Host: A person who receives or entertains guests.

Example: "She will be the host of the party."

Honest: Free of deceit and truthful in actions and words.

Example: "It's important to be honest with your friends."

House: A building used as a residence by people.

Example: "They just bought a new house in the suburbs."

Howl: To make a long, loud, mournful sound like a wolf.

Example: "The wind made the trees howl during the storm."

Hollow: Having an empty space inside; not solid.

Example: "They found a hollow tree in the forest."

Homework: Tasks assigned to students by teachers to be completed outside of school.

Example: "I need to finish my homework before I can go out."

Hold: To grasp, carry, or support with one's arms or hands.

Example: "Please hold this box for me while I open the door."

Hazard: A danger or risk that could lead to harm or injury.

Example: "Driving in heavy rain can be a hazard."

Hospitality: The friendly and generous reception and entertainment of guests or strangers.

Example: "The hotel is known for its warm hospitality."

Horror: An intense feeling of fear, shock, or disgust.

Example: "The horror movie kept me on the edge of my seat."

Human: Pertaining to or characteristic of people.

Example: "Human rights are fundamental to a just society."

Humble: Having a modest or low estimate of one's importance; not proud or arrogant.

Example: "She remained humble despite her success."

Hunt: To pursue and capture or kill animals for sport or food.

Example: "They decided to hunt for deer in the forest."

Husband: A married man in a marital relationship.

Example: "He has been a loving husband for over 30 years."

Hut: A small, simple, and often temporary dwelling or shelter.

Example: "They built a hut in the wilderness for camping."

Huge: Extremely large in size, amount, or degree.

Example: "The elephant is a huge mammal."

Hundred: The number equivalent to the product of ten and ten; 100.

Example: "There are a hundred people in the room."

Hurry: To move or act quickly in a rush.

Example: "We need to hurry if we want to catch the train."

Hunger: A strong desire or craving for food.

Example: "After the long hike, their hunger was insatiable."

Humor: The quality of being amusing, comical, or funny.

Example: "His sense of humor always lightens the mood."

HTML: HTML stands for "Hypertext Markup Language." It's the standard language used to create and design web pages. HTML uses various tags to structure the content and layout of web documents.

Example: "Web developers use HTML to build and design websites."

Hydrate: To supply with water or liquid to maintain proper bodily function.

Example: "It's essential to hydrate yourself by drinking enough water during hot weather."

Hygiene: Practices or conditions conducive to maintaining health and preventing disease, especially through cleanliness.

Example: "Proper hand hygiene can reduce the spread of infections."

Hyphen: A punctuation mark (-) used to connect words or parts of words.

Example: "The compound word 'mother-in-law' is connected by a hyphen."

Hyperactive: Excessively active or restless, often used to describe a person, especially a child, who is unusually energetic.

Example: "The child's hyperactive behavior made it challenging for him to sit still in class."

Hypocrisy: The practice of claiming to have higher moral standards or beliefs than is the case.

Example: "His hypocrisy was evident when he criticized others for their actions while engaging in similar behavior."

Hydrogen: A chemical element (H) that is the lightest and most abundant in the universe.

Example: "Hydrogen is used as a fuel source in various industries."

Hymn: A religious song or poem, typically praising a deity or giving thanks.

Example: "The congregation sang a beautiful hymn during the church service."

Hypothetical: Involving a hypothesis or assumption, often used to describe something that is not necessarily true or proven.

Example: "In a hypothetical scenario, if we had more funding, we could expand our research."

FOR MOST POPULAR PDF

BOOK GO TO WEBSITE

<https://chitrabazar.com/english-dictionary/>

