

ONE WORDS

SUBSTITUTION

HTTPS://CHITRABAZAR.COM/

Game: An activity or sport that involves competition, skill, or chance and is played for entertainment.

Example: "They enjoy playing board games on weekends."

Gallery: A room or building where works of art are displayed, often for public viewing.

Example: "The art gallery featured paintings by local artists."

Gain: The result of an action that increases or adds to something; to obtain or acquire.

Example: "She hoped to gain more knowledge through reading."

Garden: A piece of land cultivated for growing flowers, plants, or vegetables.

Example: "The backyard garden is full of colorful flowers."

Gas: A substance in a form that can expand and fill the space it occupies; often used as fuel for heating, cooking, or powering vehicles.

Example: "The car needs more gas to keep running."

Gather: To come together in one place; to collect or assemble.

Example: "We will gather for a family reunion."

Gate: A movable barrier used to close an opening or entrance, often in the form of a door or fence.

Example: "The gate to the park was locked."

Gaze: To look steadily and intently, often with fascination or admiration.

Example: "They gazed at the starry night sky."

Gather: To come together in one place; to collect or assemble.

Example: "We will gather for a family reunion."

Gateway: An entrance or a means of access to a place or an activity.

Example: "The city's airport serves as a gateway for international travelers."

Gather: To come together in one place; to collect or assemble.

Example: "We will gather for a family reunion."

Gaze: To look steadily and intently, often with fascination or admiration.

Example: "They gazed at the starry night sky."

Gate: A movable barrier used to close an opening or entrance, often in the form of a door or fence.

Example: "The gate to the park was locked."

Gallery: A room or building where works of art are displayed, often for public viewing.

Example: "The art gallery featured paintings by local artists."

Gain: The result of an action that increases or adds to something; to obtain or acquire.

Example: "She hoped to gain more knowledge through reading."

Game: An activity or sport that involves competition, skill, or chance and is played for entertainment.

Example: "They enjoy playing board games on weekends."

Garden: A piece of land cultivated for growing flowers, plants, or vegetables.

Example: "The backyard garden is full of colorful flowers."

Gas: A substance in a form that can expand and fill the space it occupies; often used as fuel for heating, cooking, or powering vehicles.

Example: "The car needs more gas to keep running."

Gateway: An entrance or a means of access to a place or an activity.

Example: "The city's airport serves as a gateway for international travelers."

Gaze: To look steadily and intently, often with fascination or admiration.

Example: "They gazed at the starry night sky."

Gbps (Gigabits per second): A unit of data transfer rate equal to one billion bits per second, often used in the context of internet speed or data transmission.

Example: "The new fiber-optic internet connection offers speeds of up to 1 Gbps."

Gentle: Kind, mild, or tender in temperament or behavior.

Example: "She had a gentle touch that comforted the child."

Generate: To produce or create something, often referring to the generation of power, ideas, or data.

Example: "The wind turbines generate electricity."

General: Relating to, involving, or affecting all or most people, things, or cases within a category.

Example: "The general consensus was that the plan needed revision."

Geography: The study of the Earth's physical features, climate, population, and other aspects of its environment.

Example: "Geography class covers maps, continents, and landforms."

Gesture: A movement or action of the body, especially the hands and arms, used to express an idea, feeling, or intention.

Example: "His gesture of shaking his head indicated disagreement."

Gem: A precious or valuable stone, often used in jewelry.

Example: "She wore a stunning gem necklace at the party."

Gender: The state of being male, female, or a blend of both, often used in the context of social and cultural roles.

Example: "Gender equality is an important goal in society."

Genius: Exceptional intellectual or creative ability; a person with extraordinary talents.

Example: "Albert Einstein is considered a genius in the field of physics."

Gentleman: A man who is courteous, chivalrous, and well-mannered.

Example: "He was known as a true gentleman in his community."

Generate: To produce or create something, often referring to the generation of power, ideas, or data.

Example: "The wind turbines generate electricity."

Generalize: To form a general understanding or conclusion based on specific examples or observations.

Example: "It's not fair to generalize about a whole group based on one person's actions."

Geography: The study of the Earth's physical features, climate, population, and other aspects of its environment.

Example: "Geography class covers maps, continents, and landforms."

Gesture: A movement or action of the body, especially the hands and arms, used to express an idea, feeling, or intention.

Example: "His gesture of shaking his head indicated disagreement."

Gem: A precious or valuable stone, often used in jewelry.

Example: "She wore a stunning gem necklace at the party."

Gender: The state of being male, female, or a blend of both, often used in the context of social and cultural roles.

Example: "Gender equality is an important goal in society."

Genius: Exceptional intellectual or creative ability; a person with extraordinary talents.

Example: "Albert Einstein is considered a genius in the field of physics."

Gentleman: A man who is courteous, chivalrous, and well-mannered.

Example: "He was known as a true gentleman in his community."

Ghost: The spirit or soul of a deceased person, often believed to appear as an apparition.

Example: "Some people claim to have seen a ghost in that old, abandoned house."

Ghastly: Extremely shocking, terrifying, or dreadful in appearance or nature.

Example: "The horror movie had some ghastly scenes that gave viewers nightmares."

Ghoul: A mythical creature or monster in folklore that is said to feed on the flesh or blood of the dead.

Example: "In some legends, ghouls are believed to haunt graveyards."

Ghetto: A section of a city or town, typically inhabited by a minority group or those living in poverty.

Example: "The neighborhood was once a ghetto but has since undergone redevelopment."

Ghastly: Extremely shocking, terrifying, or dreadful in appearance or nature.

Example: "The horror movie had some ghastly scenes that gave viewers nightmares."

Ghoul: A mythical creature or monster in folklore that is said to feed on the flesh or blood of the dead.

Example: "In some legends, ghouls are believed to haunt graveyards."

Ghetto: A section of a city or town, typically inhabited by a minority group or those living in poverty.

Example: "The neighborhood was once a ghetto but has since undergone redevelopment."

Giraffe: A tall African mammal with a long neck and spotted coat, known for feeding on leaves from tall trees.

Example: "The giraffe gracefully reached for leaves on the acacia tree."

Gift: Something given to someone as a present or token of affection.

Example: "She received a beautiful gift on her birthday."

Giant: An exceptionally large or powerful person, animal, or thing.

Example: "The elephant is a giant of the animal kingdom."

Girl: A female child or young woman.

Example: "The little girl played with her toys in the garden."

Gill: The respiratory organ in fish and some other aquatic animals, enabling them to extract oxygen from water.

Example: "Fish use their gills to breathe underwater."

Gigantic: Enormously large or huge in size.

Example: "The iceberg was truly gigantic, towering over the ship."

Glide: To move smoothly and gracefully, often without using much effort.

Example: "The swan can glide across the water with ease."

Gist: The main point or essence of something.

Example: "I'll give you the gist of the story."

Giggle: A light, spontaneous laugh, often associated with amusement or nervousness.

Example: "The children couldn't help but giggle at the funny joke."

Gifted: Possessing natural talent or exceptional ability in a particular area.

Example: "She is a gifted pianist, known for her musical talent."

Giraffe: A tall African mammal with a long neck and spotted coat, known for feeding on leaves from tall trees.

Example: "The giraffe gracefully reached for leaves on the acacia tree."

Gift: Something given to someone as a present or token of affection.

Example: "She received a beautiful gift on her birthday."

Giant: An exceptionally large or powerful person, animal, or thing.

Example: "The elephant is a giant of the animal kingdom."

Girl: A female child or young woman.

Example: "The little girl played with her toys in the garden."

Gill: The respiratory organ in fish and some other aquatic animals, enabling them to extract oxygen from water.

Example: "Fish use their gills to breathe underwater."

Gigantic: Enormously large or huge in size.

Example: "The iceberg was truly gigantic, towering over the ship."

Glide: To move smoothly and gracefully, often without using much effort.

Example: "The swan can glide across the water with ease."

Gist: The main point or essence of something.

Example: "I'll give you the gist of the story."

Giggle: A light, spontaneous laugh, often associated with amusement or nervousness.

Example: "The children couldn't help but giggle at the funny joke."

Gifted: Possessing natural talent or exceptional ability in a particular area.

Example: "She is a gifted pianist, known for her musical talent."

Glow: To emit a steady light, often with a warm or soft quality.

Example: "The campfire started to glow as the flames danced."

Glacier: A large, slow-moving mass of ice formed from compacted snow.

Example: "The glacier in Alaska is a popular tourist attraction."

Glass: A hard, transparent substance often used for windows, containers, and mirrors.

Example: "She sipped her drink from a glass."

Glimpse: A brief or fleeting view or look at something.

Example: "She caught a glimpse of the beautiful sunset through the trees."

Glare: A harsh, bright, and blinding light or an intense stare of disapproval.

Example: "The sun's glare was so strong that she had to wear sunglasses."

Glide: To move smoothly and gracefully, often without using much effort.

Example: "The eagle can glide effortlessly through the sky."

Global: Relating to the entire world or the entirety of something.

Example: "Climate change is a global issue that affects us all."

Glossy: Having a shiny or polished surface.

Example: "The magazine cover had a glossy finish."

Globe: A spherical representation of the Earth or any celestial body.

Example: "She had a globe in her classroom to teach geography."

Glad: Feeling pleased, happy, or satisfied.

Example: "I'm glad to hear that you're doing well."

Glowing: Emitting a warm or radiant light; expressing high praise or admiration.

Example: "Her glowing review of the book encouraged others to read it."

Glove: A covering for the hand, often with separate sections for the fingers and thumb.

Example: "He put on his gloves before going out in the cold."

Gluttony: Excessive indulgence in food or drink; overeating to the point of excess.

Example: "His gluttony led to weight gain and health problems."

Gloomy: Dark or dim; having a pessimistic or melancholic mood.

Example: "The gloomy weather matched his mood."

Glitter: Tiny, shiny specks or particles that reflect light.

Example: "The dress was covered in glitter, making it sparkle."

Gland: An organ or group of cells that produces and releases substances for specific bodily functions.

Example: "The thyroid gland plays a crucial role in regulating metabolism."

Goal: The objective or aim one strives to achieve; a target or purpose.

Example: "Her goal is to become a successful entrepreneur."

Gorgeous: Extremely attractive, beautiful, or stunning in appearance.

Example: "The sunset over the ocean was absolutely gorgeous."

Government: The system or organization responsible for governing a country, state, or community.

Example: "The government introduced new policies to improve healthcare."

Golden: Having the color or shine of gold; often used metaphorically to describe something highly valuable.

Example: "Their golden anniversary celebrated 50 years of marriage."

Good: Of high quality, morally right, or satisfactory.

Example: "She did a good job on her school project."

Goat: A domesticated or wild mammal known for its agility and typically associated with producing milk and meat.

Example: "The farmer raised goats on his farm."

Gobble: To eat something quickly and greedily.

Example: "He tended to gobble his food when he was hungry."

Google: A multinational technology company known for its search engine and various online services.

Example: "I often use Google to search for information online."

Graceful: Having elegance and beauty in one's movements or appearance.

Example: "The ballerina's performance was graceful and enchanting."

Gospel: A religious message or set of teachings, especially those of Christianity.

Example: "The gospel of Jesus Christ is central to Christian beliefs."

Goose: A waterfowl bird with a long neck, webbed feet, and typically white, gray, or black plumage.

Example: "The children enjoyed feeding the geese at the park."

Gourmet: Relating to high-quality food and drink, often associated with fine dining.

Example: "The restaurant is known for its gourmet cuisine."

Gondola: A narrow, flat-bottomed boat used in Venetian canals, often for transportation of passengers.

Example: "Tourists can take a romantic ride in a gondola in Venice."

Goggles: Protective eyewear designed to shield the eyes from various hazards.

Example: "Safety goggles are essential when working with chemicals."

God: A supreme being or deity, often worshiped in religious beliefs.

Example: "Many people believe in God as the creator of the universe."

Goodbye: A common farewell expression used when parting from someone.

Example: "She waved goodbye as the train left the station."

Goosebumps: Small raised bumps on the skin caused by cold, fear, or excitement.

Example: "The chilling story gave her goosebumps."

Government: The system or organization responsible for governing a country, state, or community.

Example: "The government introduced new policies to improve healthcare."

Golden: Having the color or shine of gold; often used metaphorically to describe something highly valuable.

Example: "Their golden anniversary celebrated 50 years of marriage."

Good: Of high quality, morally right, or satisfactory.

Example: "She did a good job on her school project."

Gnaw: To bite or chew on something persistently, often with the front teeth.

Example: "The squirrel would gnaw on nuts to open them."

Gnat: A small, flying insect known for its irritating presence, especially around water.

Example: "The campers used insect repellent to keep gnats away."

Gnome: A mythical creature often depicted as a small, humanoid being living underground.

Example: "In folklore, gnomes are said to guard buried treasure."

Gnash: To grind or clench one's teeth together forcefully, typically due to anger or frustration.

Example: "She would gnash her teeth when things didn't go her way."

Gnocchi: A type of Italian pasta, typically made from potato, flour, and egg, and served with various sauces.

Example: "I ordered a plate of gnocchi with marinara sauce."

Gnu (or Wildebeest): A large African antelope with a shaggy mane, known for its migrations.

Example: "The wildebeest migration is one of the most spectacular wildlife events in Africa."

Gnarl: To form or cause to form knotted, twisted, or contorted shapes, often referring to trees or wood.

Example: "The old tree had gnarled branches that reached out in all directions."

Gnostic: Relating to knowledge, especially spiritual or mystical knowledge, often associated with certain ancient religious beliefs.

Example: "Gnostic texts provide insights into early Christian thought."

Gnosis: Knowledge, especially spiritual or intuitive knowledge.

Example: "Meditation can lead to a deeper sense of gnosis."

Gnome: A mythical creature often depicted as a small, humanoid being living underground.

Example: "In folklore, gnomes are said to guard buried treasure."

Gnash: To grind or clench one's teeth together forcefully, typically due to anger or frustration.

Example: "She would gnash her teeth when things didn't go her way."

Gnocchi: A type of Italian pasta, typically made from potato, flour, and egg, and served with various sauces.

Example: "I ordered a plate of gnocchi with marinara sauce."

Gnu (or Wildebeest): A large African antelope with a shaggy mane, known for its migrations.

Example: "The wildebeest migration is one of the most spectacular wildlife events in Africa."

Gnarl: To form or cause to form knotted, twisted, or contorted shapes, often referring to trees or wood.

Example: "The old tree had gnarled branches that reached out in all directions."

Gnostic: Relating to knowledge, especially spiritual or mystical knowledge, often associated with certain ancient religious beliefs.

Example: "Gnostic texts provide insights into early Christian thought."

Gnosis: Knowledge, especially spiritual or intuitive knowledge.

Example: "Meditation can lead to a deeper sense of gnosis."

Grass: A low-growing plant with narrow leaves, often used for lawns, grazing, or as a ground cover.

Example: "The backyard was covered in lush green grass."

Great: Of large size, quantity, or quality; impressive or outstanding.

Example: "It was a great movie that everyone enjoyed."

Gravity: The force that attracts two objects with mass toward each other; the force that gives weight to physical objects.

Example: "The apple fell to the ground due to gravity."

Gray (or Grey): A color that falls between black and white, often associated with neutrality or dullness.

Example: "His hair started to turn gray as he got older."

Grateful: Feeling or showing appreciation and thankfulness for something received or done.

Example: "I'm grateful for your help during a difficult time."

Group: A collection of individuals or things gathered together for a common purpose.

Example: "They formed a study group to prepare for the exam."

Groove: A long, narrow channel or depression in a surface, often used in music to describe a rhythmic pattern.

Example: "The DJ played a catchy groove that got everyone dancing."

Green: The color of grass and leaves; often associated with nature and environmental awareness.

Example: "The leaves on the trees turn green in the spring."

Grave: A place where a deceased person is buried; serious or solemn in manner.

Example: "They visited the grave of their loved one."

Growth: The process of increasing in size, quantity, or development.

Example: "The company experienced rapid growth in the past year."

Grasshopper: A type of insect known for its jumping ability and often found in grassy areas.

Example: "Children love to catch grasshoppers in the summer."

Grumble: To complain or express dissatisfaction in a low, rumbling voice.

Example: "He would often grumble about the weather."

Ground: The solid surface of the Earth; to place something on or into the ground.

Example: "She sat on the ground and enjoyed a picnic."

Gravitate: To be drawn toward something due to the force of gravity or attraction.

Example: "People tend to gravitate toward others with similar interests."

Grid: A network of horizontal and vertical lines forming squares, often used for organization or measurement.

Example: "The city streets were laid out in a grid pattern."

Grit: Small, hard particles or courage and determination in the face of difficulty.

Example: "She showed great grit in overcoming obstacles."

Growth: The process of increasing in size, quantity, or development.

Example: "The company experienced rapid growth in the past year."

Grasshopper: A type of insect known for its jumping ability and often found in grassy areas.

Example: "Children love to catch grasshoppers in the summer."

Grumble: To complain or express dissatisfaction in a low, rumbling voice.

Example: "He would often grumble about the weather."

Ground: The solid surface of the Earth; to place something on or into the ground.

Example: "She sat on the ground and enjoyed a picnic."

Guide: A person or thing that leads or directs others, often providing assistance or information.

Example: "The tour guide showed us around the historic city."

Guitarist: A person who plays the guitar, a musical instrument with strings.

Example: "She is a talented guitarist and can play a variety of styles."

Guess: To estimate or form an opinion without sufficient evidence or knowledge.

Example: "Can you guess how many marbles are in the jar?"

Guest: A person who is invited or allowed to enter someone's home, event, or establishment.

Example: "We had several guests at the party last night."

Gum: A soft, chewy substance often used for chewing, flavored with various flavors.

Example: "She enjoyed blowing bubbles with her gum."

Guarantee: A promise or assurance that something will happen or be done.

Example: "The warranty guarantees the product against defects."

Guilt: The feeling of having committed a wrongdoing or offense.

Example: "She couldn't shake off the guilt after breaking the vase."

Gust: A brief, strong burst of wind.

Example: "A gust of wind rattled the windows during the storm."

Gush: To flow out suddenly and forcefully, often used to describe emotions or liquids.

Example: "She couldn't help but gush with happiness when she received the news."

Gusto: Enthusiastic and vigorous enjoyment or appreciation.

Example: "He ate his meal with great gusto."

Guard: A person or group of people responsible for protecting something or someone.

Example: "The security guard monitored the entrance."

Guild: An association of people with a common interest or profession.

Example: "The writers' guild held a conference on storytelling."

Guesthouse: A small lodging establishment that provides accommodations for guests.

Example: "They stayed in a cozy guesthouse during their vacation."

Guacamole: A popular Mexican dip or condiment made from mashed avocados and various seasonings.

Example: "Chips and guacamole are a favorite snack at parties."

Gumdrop: A small, chewy candy typically shaped like a small dome and coated in sugar.

Example: "The children enjoyed eating colorful gumdrops."

Guitarist: A person who plays the guitar, a musical instrument with strings.

Example: "She is a talented guitarist and can play a variety of styles."

Guess: To estimate or form an opinion without sufficient evidence or knowledge.

Example: "Can you guess how many marbles are in the jar?"

Guest: A person who is invited or allowed to enter someone's home, event, or establishment.

Example: "We had several guests at the party last night."

Gum: A soft, chewy substance often used for chewing, flavored with various flavors.

Example: "She enjoyed blowing bubbles with her gum."

Guarantee: A promise or assurance that something will happen or be done.

Example: "The warranty guarantees the product against defects."

Gymnastics: A sport that involves exercises and performances requiring physical strength, flexibility, balance, and coordination.

Example: "She excelled in rhythmic gymnastics, showcasing her skills with ribbons and hoops."

Gypsum: A soft sulfate mineral used in various industries, including construction.

Example: "Gypsum is used in the production of plaster and drywall."

Gyrate: To move in a circular or spiral motion.

Example: "The dancer began to gyrate to the rhythm of the music."

Gyroscope: A device consisting of a spinning wheel or disk mounted in a way that allows it to maintain its orientation in space.

Example: "The gyroscope in the spacecraft helped maintain its stability during the mission."

Gynecology: The branch of medicine that focuses on the health and diseases of the female reproductive system.

Example: "She decided to pursue a career in gynecology to help women with their health concerns."

Gyration: The act of moving or rotating in a circular or spiral manner.

Example: "The gyration of the helicopter's rotor blades created a strong wind."

Gyrfalcon: A large and powerful species of falcon known for its hunting prowess.

Example: "The gyrfalcon is often used in falconry due to its impressive hunting abilities."

Gypsum: A soft sulfate mineral used in various industries, including construction.

Example: "Gypsum is used in the production of plaster and drywall."

Gyrate: To move in a circular or spiral motion.

Example: "The dancer began to gyrate to the rhythm of the music."

Gyroscope: A device consisting of a spinning wheel or disk mounted in a way that allows it to maintain its orientation in space.

Example: "The gyroscope in the spacecraft helped maintain its stability during the mission."

FOR MOST POPULAR PDF
BOOK GO TO WEBSITE

<https://chitrabazar.com/english-dictionary/>

