

ONE WORDS

SUBSTITUTION

HTTPS://CHITRABAZAR.COM/

Cake: A sweet baked dessert typically made with flour, sugar, eggs, and flavorings.

Example: "She baked a delicious chocolate cake for her friend's birthday."

Calendar: A system for organizing and measuring time, often used to record events and appointments.

Example: "Mark the date on your calendar for the meeting."

Camera: A device used to capture still or moving images, typically with a lens and sensor.

Example: "He took a photograph with his digital camera."

Candle: A source of light typically made of wax with a wick that is ignited.

Example: "She lit a scented candle to create a cozy atmosphere."

Calculate: To determine a value or figure by using mathematical operations or formulas.

Example: "He needed to calculate the total cost of the project."

Calm: A state of tranquility or peacefulness; to make or become tranquil.

Example: "The calm of the ocean was soothing to watch."

Camp: A place where people live in tents or temporary shelters, often for recreational purposes.

Example: "They spent the weekend camping in the forest."

Candy: A sweet confection often made with sugar, flavorings, and sometimes chocolate.

Example: "Children enjoy receiving candy on Halloween."

Capital: The city or town that serves as the seat of government for a country or region; wealth in the form of money or assets.

Example: "Washington, D.C. is the capital of the United States."

Capture: To seize or catch something or someone; to record or represent visually.

Example: "They managed to capture the beauty of the sunset in their photographs."

Car: A motorized vehicle with four wheels used for transportation.

Example: "He drove his car to work every day."

Card: A rectangular piece of paper or plastic often used for identification, information, or as part of a game.

Example: "She received a birthday card from her friend."

Care: To provide for and look after someone or something; concern or attention.

Example: "Parents care for their children's well-being."

Career: One's profession or occupation, typically involving a series of connected employment opportunities.

Example: "She pursued a successful career in medicine."

Cartoon: A humorous or satirical drawing or animation often found in newspapers, magazines, or on television.

Example: "The political cartoon in the newspaper was witty and thought-provoking."

Castle: A large fortified building, often with turrets and a moat, historically used for defense.

Example: "They visited the medieval castle on their vacation."

Catalog: A list or record of items, often with descriptions and details.

Example: "The catalog includes a wide range of products."

Caterpillar: The larval stage of a butterfly or moth, often characterized by a segmented body and the ability to crawl.

Example: "They observed the caterpillar as it transformed into a butterfly."

Caucasian: Relating to a group of people with origins in the Caucasus region or, more broadly, to people with light skin tones.

Example: "Caucasian populations are found in various parts of the world."

Cautious: Exercising care and prudence to avoid potential risks or problems.

Example: "She was cautious when crossing the busy intersection."

CD-ROM: An abbreviation for "Compact Disc Read-Only Memory," referring to a type of optical disc that stores data and is read by a computer or other CD-ROM drive.

Celebrate: To observe or mark an occasion with festivities, joy, or acknowledgment.

Example: "They celebrate their anniversary with a romantic dinner."

Ceremony: A formal event or ritual with specific customs and procedures, often for a special occasion.

Example: "The wedding ceremony was held in a beautiful garden."

Cell: The basic structural and functional unit of all living organisms; a small room or compartment.

Example: "Cells in the human body perform various functions."

Center: The middle point or central location; an organization or facility focused on specific activities.

Example: "The museum is at the center of the city."

Century: A period of 100 years; often used to describe a specific historical era.

Example: "The 20th century witnessed significant technological advancements."

Cereal: A common breakfast food made from grains, such as oats, wheat, or corn.

Example: "She had a bowl of cereal with milk for breakfast."

Certificate: A formal document that serves as proof of accomplishment, completion, or qualification.

Example: "She received a certificate of excellence for her achievements."

Certain: Having no doubt; definite or sure.

Example: "He was certain that he had locked the door."

Challenge: A difficult task or problem that tests one's abilities or skills; to question or dispute.

Example: "Overcoming this challenge required teamwork."

Champion: A winner or advocate of a cause; to support or defend vigorously.

Example: "She is a champion of environmental conservation."

Change: To make or become different; a variation or alteration.

Example: "Change is a natural part of life."

Chaos: A state of complete disorder and confusion.

Example: "The sudden storm created chaos in the city."

Check: To inspect, examine, or verify; a written order for payment or a mark indicating verification.

Example: "Please check the document for errors."

Cheerful: Full of happiness and optimism; showing a joyful disposition.

Example: "Her cheerful demeanor brightened the room."

Chef: A professional cook, typically in charge of preparing meals in a restaurant or kitchen.

Example: "The chef prepared a gourmet meal for the guests."

Chemistry: The branch of science that deals with the composition, structure, and properties of matter and substances.

Example: "She is studying chemistry at the university."

Cherish: To hold dear or appreciate deeply; to protect and care for.

Example: "He cherished the memories of his childhood."

Chess: A strategic board game played by two players, each with 16 pieces.

Example: "They spent the afternoon playing a game of chess."

Chill: A cold sensation; to make or become cold; to relax.

Example: "The chill in the air signaled the arrival of winter."

Chocolate: A sweet, often brown confection made from cocoa beans and sugar.

Example: "She indulged in a piece of dark chocolate."

Cinema: A place where films are shown to an audience; the film industry as a whole.

Example: "They went to the cinema to watch the latest movie."

Circle: A round shape or figure; to move in a circular pattern.

Example: "They sat in a circle and discussed their ideas."

Circulate: To move or flow in a circular pattern; to distribute or spread widely.

Example: "The fans circulated air throughout the room."

Citizen: A legal member of a particular country, often entitled to rights and privileges.

Example: "He became a citizen of the United States after years of living there."

City: A large and densely populated urban area; a municipality with local government.

Example: "New York City is known for its skyscrapers."

Civil: Relating to citizens, society, or the ordinary life of people; polite and courteous.

Example: "They engaged in a civil conversation about their differences."

Civilization: An advanced stage of human social development marked by culture, technology, and organized society.

Example: "Ancient Egypt was a notable civilization."

Civic: Relating to a city or its citizens; pertaining to civil affairs and public life.

Example: "Civic engagement is important for a thriving community."

Civilian: A person not in the military or police force; a noncombatant.

Example: "The humanitarian organization provides aid to civilians in conflict zones."

Circumstance: The condition or situation surrounding an event or action; a factor or detail.

Example: "His success was influenced by his circumstances."

Circus: A traveling show or entertainment featuring acrobats, clowns, and various acts.

Example: "The circus brought excitement to the town."

Cite: To quote or refer to as evidence or support for an argument or statement.

Example: "She cited several studies to back up her claims."

Cigar: A rolled bundle of dried and fermented tobacco leaves, often smoked for pleasure.

Example: "He enjoyed a fine cigar after dinner."

Cider: A beverage made from the fermented juice of apples.

Example: "They sipped on apple cider during the autumn festival."

Civic: Relating to a city or its citizens; pertaining to civil affairs and public life.

Example: "Civic engagement is important for a thriving community."

Civility: Politeness and courtesy in behavior and speech; respectful conduct.

Example: "He treated everyone with civility and respect."

Citadel: A fortress or stronghold, typically located in a strategic position for defense.

Example: "The citadel provided protection for the city during times of war."

Cinema: A place where films are shown to an audience; the film industry as a whole.

Example: "They went to the cinema to watch the latest movie."

Cipher: A secret or coded way of writing; a person or thing with no significance.

Example: "The spy used a cipher to encode the message."

Cistern: A container for storing water, especially one that is underground or used for rainwater harvesting.

Example: "The ancient city had a network of cisterns for water storage."

Clam: A type of shellfish often used in seafood dishes.

Example: "She ordered a bowl of clam chowder."

Clap: To strike the palms of one's hands together, often as a sign of applause or approval.

Example: "The audience began to clap after the performance."

Class: A group of students who attend a school or educational institution together; a category or level of quality.

Example: "She is in the same class as her best friend."

Clean: Free from dirt, dust, or impurities; to make something free of dirt or stains.

Example: "She cleaned the house from top to bottom."

Clear: Easy to understand; free from obstructions or clutter.

Example: "His instructions were clear and concise."

Climate: The typical weather conditions of a region over an extended period.

Example: "The climate in tropical countries is usually warm and humid."

Clock: A device used to measure and display time, often with hands or digital numbers.

Example: "She glanced at the clock to check the time."

Clown: A performer who uses humor, makeup, and costumes to entertain, often at circuses or parties.

Example: "The clown made everyone laugh with his silly antics."

Clover: A type of plant with three-lobed leaves, often used as fodder for livestock.

Example: "The field was covered in lush clover."

Cloud: A visible mass of tiny water droplets or ice crystals in the atmosphere; to obscure or darken.

Example: "Dark clouds gathered in the sky before the rain."

Clumsy: Lacking grace or coordination; awkward in movement or action.

Example: "He felt clumsy when he first tried ice skating."

Club: An organization or group of people with a common interest or purpose; a blunt weapon.

Example: "She joined the photography club at her school."

Clumsy: Lacking grace or coordination; awkward in movement or action.

Example: "He felt clumsy when he first tried ice skating."

Clump: A cluster or group of things or people closely packed together.

Example: "A clump of trees stood at the edge of the forest."

Clumsy: Lacking grace or coordination; awkward in movement or action.

Example: "He felt clumsy when he first tried ice skating."

Clutch: To grasp something tightly; a mechanism in a vehicle that engages and disengages power.

Example: "She clutched the book to her chest."

Cliff: A steep, vertical or nearly vertical rock face or escarpment.

Example: "The climbers scaled the cliff with great skill."

Clip: To fasten or attach something with a clasp or pin; a short piece of film or video.

Example: "She used a hair clip to keep her hair in place."

Clarity: The quality of being clear, transparent, or easy to understand.

Example: "The clarity of his explanation made the concept easier to grasp."

Clamor: A loud and persistent noise or outcry, often from a group of people.

Example: "The protesters raised a clamor for justice."

Cnidarian: A type of marine animal belonging to the phylum Cnidaria, which includes jellyfish, corals, and sea anemones.

Example: "Jellyfish are a well-known example of cnidarian creatures."

Coffee: A popular beverage made from roasted coffee beans, often served hot or cold.

Example: "She enjoys a cup of coffee every morning."

Computer: An electronic device used for storing, processing, and retrieving information.

Example: "He uses a computer for work and entertainment."

Community: A group of people living in the same area or sharing common interests or characteristics.

Example: "They worked together to strengthen their community."

Company: A business organization engaged in commercial, industrial, or professional activities.

Example: "She works for a reputable company."

Concert: A live musical performance typically held in a venue or auditorium.

Example: "They attended a rock concert last night."

Comfort: A state of physical ease and freedom from pain or constraint; to soothe or console.

Example: "The comfortable chair allowed her to relax."

Color: The visual perception of different wavelengths of light; a particular shade or hue.

Example: "She painted the walls a vibrant shade of blue."

Correct: Free from error or mistakes; to make something right or accurate.

Example: "He corrected the spelling errors in his essay."

Communication: The act of conveying information or exchanging ideas through speech, writing, or other means.

Example: "Effective communication is key in any relationship."

Country: A nation or sovereign state; a rural or agricultural region.

Example: "She visited a beautiful country in Europe."

Coin: A small, flat, typically round piece of metal used as a medium of exchange.

Example: "He found an old coin buried in the backyard."

Cousin: The child of one's uncle or aunt; a relative.

Example: "She's close friends with her cousin."

Collection: A group of objects or items gathered together, often based on a common theme or purpose.

Example: "His stamp collection includes rare and vintage stamps."

Conference: A formal meeting for discussion, often among experts or professionals.

Example: "The annual conference brings together industry leaders."

Collaborate: To work together with others on a project or task.

Example: "They decided to collaborate on the research paper."

Control: To influence or direct the behavior of something or someone; authority or power to manage.

Example: "She has excellent control over her emotions."

Commitment: Dedication or loyalty to a cause or relationship; a pledge or promise.

Example: "Their commitment to the project was unwavering."

Computer: An electronic device used for storing, processing, and retrieving information.

Example: "He uses a computer for work and entertainment."

Conscious: Aware of one's thoughts, feelings, or surroundings; deliberate.

Example: "She was conscious of the importance of her decision."

Cooperate: To work together with others in a coordinated and supportive manner.

Example: "The team members cooperate to achieve their goals."

CpG: A term used in genetics to refer to a dinucleotide sequence of DNA consisting of a cytosine followed by a guanine, often associated with the regulation of gene expression.

Example: "Researchers study CpG islands in the genome to understand gene regulation."

Crack: A narrow opening or fissure; to break or cause to break with a sharp, sudden sound.

Example: "She heard a crack in the wall during the earthquake."

Creature: A living being, often an animal or organism.

Example: "The forest is home to a variety of creatures."

Crispy: Having a crisp or crunchy texture; often used to describe well-cooked food.

Example: "The fries were perfectly crispy."

Credit: The ability to obtain goods or services before payment, often based on trust; to acknowledge or give recognition.

Example: "He deserves credit for his hard work."

Criminal: A person who has committed a crime; relating to unlawful activities.

Example: "The police apprehended the criminal."

Cruise: A journey, often by ship, for leisure or vacation; to travel smoothly at a consistent speed.

Example: "They went on a cruise to the Caribbean."

Crust: The outer, hard layer of bread, pie, or pizza; the Earth's outermost layer.

Example: "She prefers her pizza with a thin crust."

Crown: A symbolic or actual head covering, often denoting royalty or achievement; the top part of something.

Example: "The king wore a golden crown."

Crucial: Extremely important or essential; critical.

Example: "His timely intervention was crucial in solving the problem."

Crop: A cultivated plant or agricultural product; to harvest or gather.

Example: "They grew various crops on their farm."

Cross: To move from one side to another; a symbol formed by intersecting lines.

Example: "They needed to cross the river to reach the other side."

Crave: To have a strong desire for something; to long for.

Example: "She craved chocolate after dinner."

Crisis: A time of intense difficulty or danger; a turning point.

Example: "The economic crisis had widespread effects."

Crown: A symbolic or actual head covering, often denoting royalty or achievement; the top part of something.

Example: "The king wore a golden crown."

Crush: To press something forcefully; a strong infatuation or romantic attraction.

Example: "She had a crush on her classmate."

Cry: To express strong emotion, often by shedding tears; a vocal expression of sorrow or joy.

Example: "She cried when she received the good news."

Creature: A living being, often an animal or organism.

Example: "The forest is home to a variety of creatures."

Cruise: A journey, often by ship, for leisure or vacation; to travel smoothly at a consistent speed.

Example: "They went on a cruise to the Caribbean."

Craft: Skill in making things by hand; an activity or profession requiring skill and creativity.

Example: "She excelled in the craft of woodworking."

Crunch: A sound or sensation of something being crushed or bitten; to make a crunching sound.

Example: "The crunchy leaves covered the ground in the autumn."

Cute: Attractive or charming in an endearing way; often used to describe small, charming animals or people.

Example: "The baby's laughter was incredibly cute."

Curious: Eager to learn or know about something; inquisitive.

Example: "She has a curious nature and always asks questions."

Culture: The customs, beliefs, arts, and social practices of a particular group, society, or time.

Example: "Japanese culture includes traditional tea ceremonies."

Currency: The system of money used in a particular country; the money in circulation.

Example: "The currency in Japan is the yen."

Customer: A person who buys goods or services from a business; a client.

Example: "The store values its loyal customers."

Cuddle: To hold close and lovingly in one's arms; to show affection through physical contact.

Example: "She likes to cuddle with her cat on the couch."

Customary: Usual, traditional, or commonly practiced in a particular culture or context.

Example: "It's customary to shake hands when meeting someone in many Western countries."

Curtain: A piece of fabric or material used to cover or decorate a window or stage.

Example: "She pulled the curtain closed to block out the sunlight."

Curse: A spoken or written expression of a wish for harm to come to someone; to use offensive or profane language.

Example: "He muttered a curse under his breath."

Cupboard: A cabinet or storage space with shelves, often used for storing dishes or food.

Example: "She keeps her collection of spices in the kitchen cupboard."

Curly: Having hair that forms tight, rounded coils or waves.

Example: "Her curly hair is naturally voluminous."

Cucumber: A green, cylindrical vegetable often used in salads.

Example: "She sliced some cucumber for the salad."

Cuisine: A style or method of cooking, often associated with a particular region or culture.

Example: "Italian cuisine is known for its pasta and pizza dishes."

Cushion: A soft pad or support, often used for seating or to make something more comfortable.

Example: "The cushion on the sofa made it cozy."

Curl: To twist or form into a spiral shape; a spiral or ringlet of hair.

Example: "She used a curling iron to create perfect curls."

Curt: Rudely brief or abrupt in speech or manner; terse.

Example: "His curt response left no room for further discussion."

Cupcake: A small, individual cake often topped with frosting or decorations.

Example: "The children enjoyed cupcakes at the birthday party."

Curriculum: The subjects and content taught in a school or educational program.

Example: "The school updated its curriculum to include new technology courses."

Cruise: A journey, often by ship, for leisure or vacation; to travel smoothly at a consistent speed.

Example: "They went on a cruise to the Caribbean."

Cutlery: Utensils used for cutting and eating food, such as knives, forks, and spoons.

Example: "The restaurant provided high-quality cutlery for its guests."

Cycle: A series of events or processes that repeat in a regular sequence; to ride a bicycle or motorcycle.

Example: "She enjoys going for a cycle ride in the park."

Cylinder: A three-dimensional geometric shape with two circular bases and a curved surface; a component of an engine.

Example: "The engine's cylinder needed repair."

Cynical: Doubtful or distrustful of the motives of others; skeptical about the sincerity of people's actions.

Example: "After years in politics, he became cynical about promises made by politicians."

Cyber: Relating to computers, computer networks, or virtual reality.

Example: "Cybersecurity is important to protect against online threats."

Cyst: A sac or closed cavity in the body, often containing liquid, pus, or other material.

Example: "The doctor diagnosed the presence of a cyst."

Cypress: A type of evergreen tree often found in wet or swampy areas.

Example: "The cypress trees along the river provided shade."

Cytoplasm: The gel-like substance within a cell, excluding the nucleus, where various cellular processes occur.

Example: "The cytoplasm is a vital part of cell biology."

Cybersecurity: The practice of protecting computer systems, networks, and data from digital threats and attacks.

Example: "Businesses invest in cybersecurity measures to safeguard their information."

Cyberbullying: The use of electronic communication to harass, threaten, or intimidate individuals, typically online.

Example: "Schools take measures to prevent cyberbullying among students."

Cypress: A type of evergreen tree often found in wet or swampy areas.

Example: "The cypress trees along the river provided shade."

Cyclone: A large, rotating storm system characterized by strong winds and low pressure, often known as a hurricane or typhoon.

Example: "The cyclone caused widespread damage along the coast."

Cymbal: A musical percussion instrument consisting of a round metal plate that produces a ringing sound when struck.

Example: "The drummer used cymbals to add excitement to the music."

Cyberspace: The virtual environment or digital realm created by computer networks and the internet.

Example: "We spend a significant amount of time in cyberspace, browsing websites and social media."

Cystic: Relating to or characterized by the presence of cysts; often used in medical contexts.

Example: "The patient had a cystic condition that required surgery."

Cybercrime: Criminal activities conducted over the internet or involving computer systems, such as hacking and online fraud.

Example: "Law enforcement agencies work to combat cybercrime."

Cypress: A type of evergreen tree often found in wet or swampy areas.

Example: "The cypress trees along the river provided shade."

Cystic: Relating to or characterized by the presence of cysts; often used in medical contexts.

Example: "The patient had a cystic condition that required surgery."

Cycle: A series of events or processes that repeat in a regular sequence; to ride a bicycle or motorcycle.

Example: "She enjoys going for a cycle ride in the park."

Cypress: A type of evergreen tree often found in wet or swampy areas.

Example: "The cypress trees along the river provided shade."

Cyberspace: The virtual environment or digital realm created by computer networks and the internet.

Example: "We spend a significant amount of time in cyberspace, browsing websites and social media."

FOR MORE ONE WORDS GO TO
WEBSITE <https://chitrabazar.com/english-dictionary/>

